

The Board of Education earnestly welcomes the interest and involvement of the public; and it is the intent of the Board that this statement of its policy concerning meetings and procedures will alert the public and invite greater public participation. Procedures for public participation are published in the agenda and are available from the clerk of the board.

Approved: July 8, 2002